

God's power is awesome!

Psalm 98

We praise God knowing that God is more powerful than any living thing on earth. The psalm writer says that even the powerful seas and the rock-hard hills will praise God. But this psalm has some missing words. Print them on the blank lines. (Hint: The words will rhyme with the "hint words" below the blank lines.)

Psalm 98 says, "Make a joyful noise to the Lord." Talk about what kind of noise, music, or rhythm you would choose to praise God.

O sing to the Lord a new _____ ,
long

for he has done marvelous _____ .
sings

Let the sea roar, and all that fills _____ ;
sit

the world and those who live in _____ .
bit

Let the floods clap their _____ ;
lands

let the hills sing together for _____ boy

at the presence of the Lord, for he is coming to judge the _____ .

birth

—Psalm 98:1-7, 9a (NRSV)

